WED AT ELIZABETH CITY.

Miss Ada Lee Irvin and Benjamin Samuel Reynolds Married.
Miss Ada Lee Irvin, daughter of Mr. Lelle Ervin, of 525 Thirty-second street, and Benjamin Samuel Reynolds were married Sunday afternoon at Elizabeth City, N. C. The marriage was to have taken place in this city, but owing to several reasons it was held in North Carolina. This was not a runaway match as there was no objection to the marriage on the part of the parents of the young people. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and W. C. Pennington, who was the best man at the wedding, returned to this city Sunday evening and were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents, 545 Thirty-second street, where the young couple will make their home.

Miss Ervin has lived here about three years and is popular with many friends. Mr. Reynolds has been a resident of this city for many years and has a wide circle of friends. Among the out-of-town guests attending the reception Sunday night were: Misses Pearson and Branch, of Richmond, and Mr. Tilden Smith, of Williamsburg.

Marriage License Issued.

Deputy Clerk of Courts Marable yesterday granted a marriage license to Frank W. Rainey and Miss Anne Laura Mills, both of this city. The marriage is to take place tomorrow.

tion. He said that the members of the class deserved great praise for their courage and labor in completing the High school course. He pointed out that they had started with twenty-four others who had dropped out of the class one by one. At the conclusion of his brief speech, Mr. Cunningham presented each graduate with his or her diploma and, while the orchestra rendered another selection, two young students of the High school delivered the flowers and presents to the young ladies of the class.

Nearly Two Hundred Graduates.
This ceremony concluded, President Puckett dismissed the audience with the statement that since the High school had been established in Newport News 174 young ladies and young men had graduated from it.

Comprising the class of "June, 1910," were: Full graduates—Misses Laura Ada Carver, Tehodora Marston Harwood and Anna Eline Kriscich; Messrs. Duval Adam Hudson, Hugh John Fitzgerald, Jr., Allie Green Morgan and Archie Daiglesh Shankland. Elective graduates—Misses Nannie Ruth Hudson, Mary Lattie Morrison, Flora Temple Lash and Elsie Stewart West, and Mr. Thomas Parker Host.

School Board Meeting.

The regular meeting of the school board is to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the assembly hall of the High school building. Several new teachers are to be elected tonight to replace those who did not reapply for next session.

Corporation Court Convened.
Judge Barham convened the regular June criminal term of the Corporation Court, but owing to the fact that Commonwealth's Attorney Berkeley is engaged in the prosecution of the officers of the Southeastern Underwriters' Association no grand jury sat. Judge Barham called his docket for the term and then adjourned until today.

Divorce is Granted.

Mrs. Katie E. Reel was granted a divorce by Judge Barham in the Corporation Court yesterday from her husband McDuffy Reel. Abandonment was the ground for the separation.
